We arrive in Hochiminh, the most animated city of Vietnam present day and one of Asia's most interesting cities. The city tour to explore Historical reminders of Viet Nam's past are abundant here and provide a striking backdrop to the rapid transformation of Viet Nam today. In Ho Chi Minh city we see charming colonial buildings along historic tree-lined boulevards, explore the Chinatown of Sai Gon and touring this exciting commercial district with its colorful markets as we discover a Chinese pagoda, which is distinctly different from those found in other part of Viet Nam, the Notre Dame Cathedral, Old Sai Gon Post Office and Thien Hau pagoda. We then enjoy welcome dinner with special Vietnamese cuisine.

Day 3: Hochiminh – Vungtau – Golfing @ Vungtau Paradise Resort Club (B)

Pick up at the hotel at 8am to transfer to Saigon highspeed boat station. Leave for Vung Tau, the car transfer directly to Vung tau Paradise Resort Club.

Bracing sea air, three kilometres of dazzling white beach, spectacular ocean views from the tee, and a challenging 27-holes of championship golf - all of these combine to challenge and entertain players at Vung Tau's Paradise Resort golf club. Although popular with tourists and Vung Tau's foreign residents and workers, the course at the Paradise resort remains one of Vietnam's least played, which is surprising considering its quality and the level of facilities available to visitors. The Taiwanese-designed 27-hole course is Vietnam's first seaside golf course, and offers a challenging play to golfers of all levels. The 6,830-yard, par 72 18-hole course is the most widely played - a testing, links-style course affording spectacular views both out over the sea and inland. Palms offer a little shade, and the sea breeze keeps things relatively cool. In addition to the excellent golf course, Paradise Resort also boasts a putting green, driving range with sea views, fully equipped club house, and trolley and buggy rental. Non-golfers are also very well catered for at the club Tennis courts, water sports, surfing, jet ski etc. provide more than enough diversion for even the most energetic, while those looking for more staid activities can opt for a quiet meal in the restaurant, or a drink in the club house.
